

The background features decorative elements in the corners: a stylized flower in the top-left, a swirl in the top-right, a swirl in the bottom-left, and a stylized flower in the bottom-right, all in a light pink color.

VENETO

IRENE GONZALEZ ARNELA

Introduccion

Veneto is a region in the northeast of Italy. It borders Lombardy, Trentino-Alto Adige, Friuli-Venezia Giulia and Emilia-Romagna. It is located on the Adriatic Sea and includes the Venetian Lagoon. Because of its position, it is an important area for trade and travel between Italy and Central Europe. Veneto has about 4.8 million inhabitants. Its capital is Venice, a beautiful city famous for its canals, bridges and historic buildings. The region is well known for its tourism, industry, art, crafts and commerce.

Major cities

Venice: capital built on islands in the lagoon.

Verona: famous for the Arena and the story of Romeo and Juliet.

Padua: known for its historic university and the Basilica of Saint Anthony.

Treviso is an Italian city famous for its canals, historic buildings, and medieval and Renaissance artistic heritage.

Vicenza: known for the works of Palladio and for its goldsmithing.

Tourism: Monuments and places of interest

Veneto is one of Italy's most diverse and visited regions, famous for its art cities, like the majestic Dolomites (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), the shores of Lake Garda, and the expansive beaches of the Adriatic Sea. Its capital is Venice.

Mujeres para recordar

Caterina Cornaro (1454–1510): Venetian noblewoman who became Queen of Cyprus.

Veronica Franco (1546–1591): Renaissance poet, famous for her writings.

Elena Cornaro Piscopia (1646–1684): the first woman in the world to graduate, studied and taught in Padua.

Tina Anselmi (1927–2016): party member and minister, committed to rights and democracy.

Typical products and dishes

Amarone: a red wine from Verona with an intense flavor.

Baccalà alla vicentina: dried cod, milk, onions, oil and anchovies; cooked slowly for hours.

Bigoli in sauce: thick pasta with onions and anchovies, a simple but tasty traditional dish.

Radicchio: a typical vegetable used in risottos, pasta dishes and side dishes.

Prosecco: famous sparkling wine from the hills of Treviso.

Polenta and sopressa: cornmeal for polenta, accompanied by typical Venetian sausages.

Radicchio risotto: rice, red radicchio, onion, broth and Parmesan cheese; slightly bitter taste.

Tiramisu: mascarpone, eggs, sugar, coffee and ladyfinger biscuits; a famous dessert originating from Treviso.