

The background features a light beige color with various organic, flowing shapes in shades of taupe and brown. Stylized leafy branches are positioned in the corners. A cluster of small, dark brown oval shapes is located in the top-left and bottom-right corners.

chartered community of Navarra

NAVARRA

ALEJANDRA, VICTORIA Y AINHOA

Blanca I de Navarra

Blanca I of Navarra (born in Pamplona around 1385 – died in Santa María la Real de Nieva in 1441) was the Queen of Navarra and Countess of Nemours. She was a member of the House of Évreux. She ruled Navarra from 1425 to 1441. After her death, her will caused a long civil war about who should inherit the throne of Navarra.

DOLORES REDONDO

Dolores Redondo is a Spanish writer internationally recognized for her contribution to the contemporary crime fiction genre. She is the author of the bestselling Baztán Trilogy, translated into more than 38 languages and adapted into a film by Netflix. Her work is characterized by its fusion of police procedural, psychology, and Basque-Navarrese folklore.

RUTH TOLEDANO

Ruth Toledano (Pamplona, 1963) is a Spanish journalist, writer, and poet. Recognized for her activism in defense of animal rights and for being the first woman appointed Official Chronicler of the City of Madrid, her career combines literature, social commitment, and critical thinking.

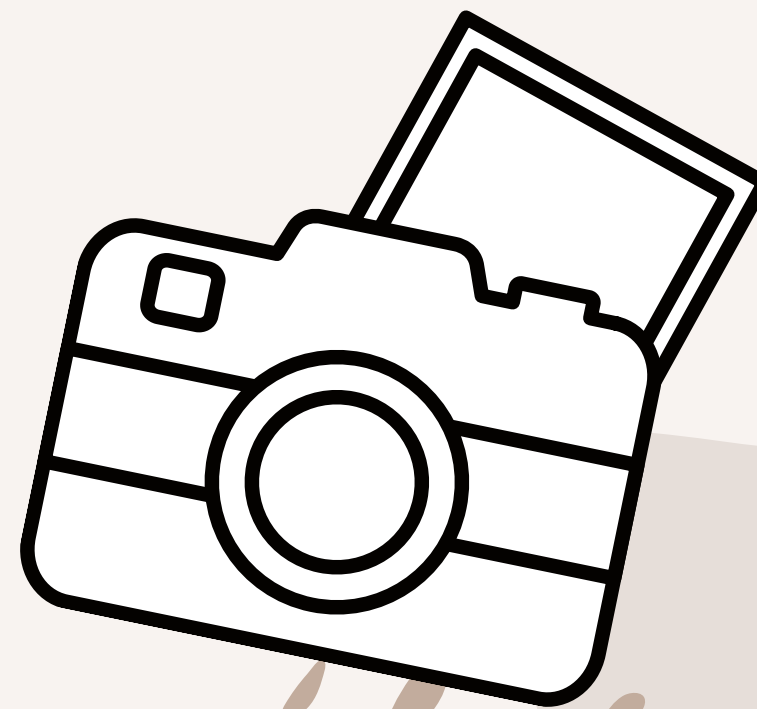

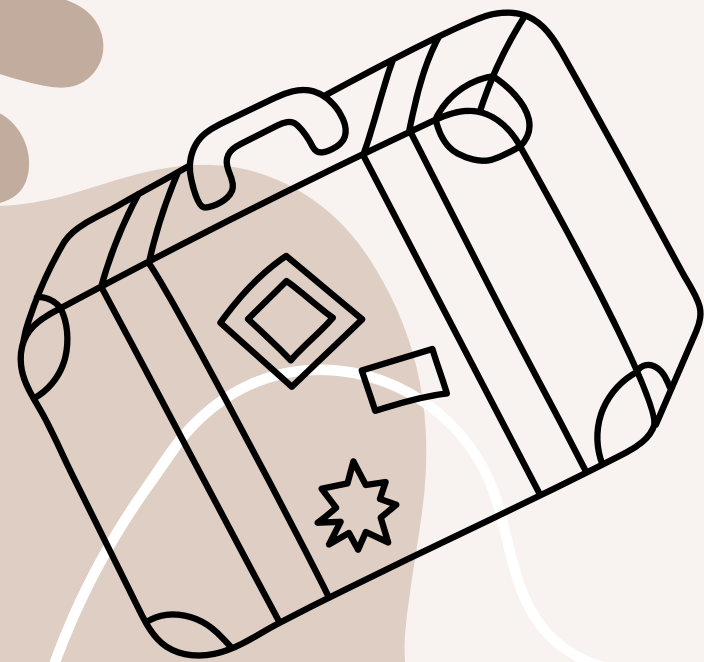

ESTEFANÍA UNZU

Estefanía Unzu Ripoll (Pamplona, 1985), known as Verdeliss, is a Spanish ultramarathon runner, businesswoman, and influencer. In 2025, she became a prominent figure in athletics by winning the World Marathon Challenge and breaking the Spanish record for 100 kilometers, feats that solidified her reputation as a leading figure in endurance sports.

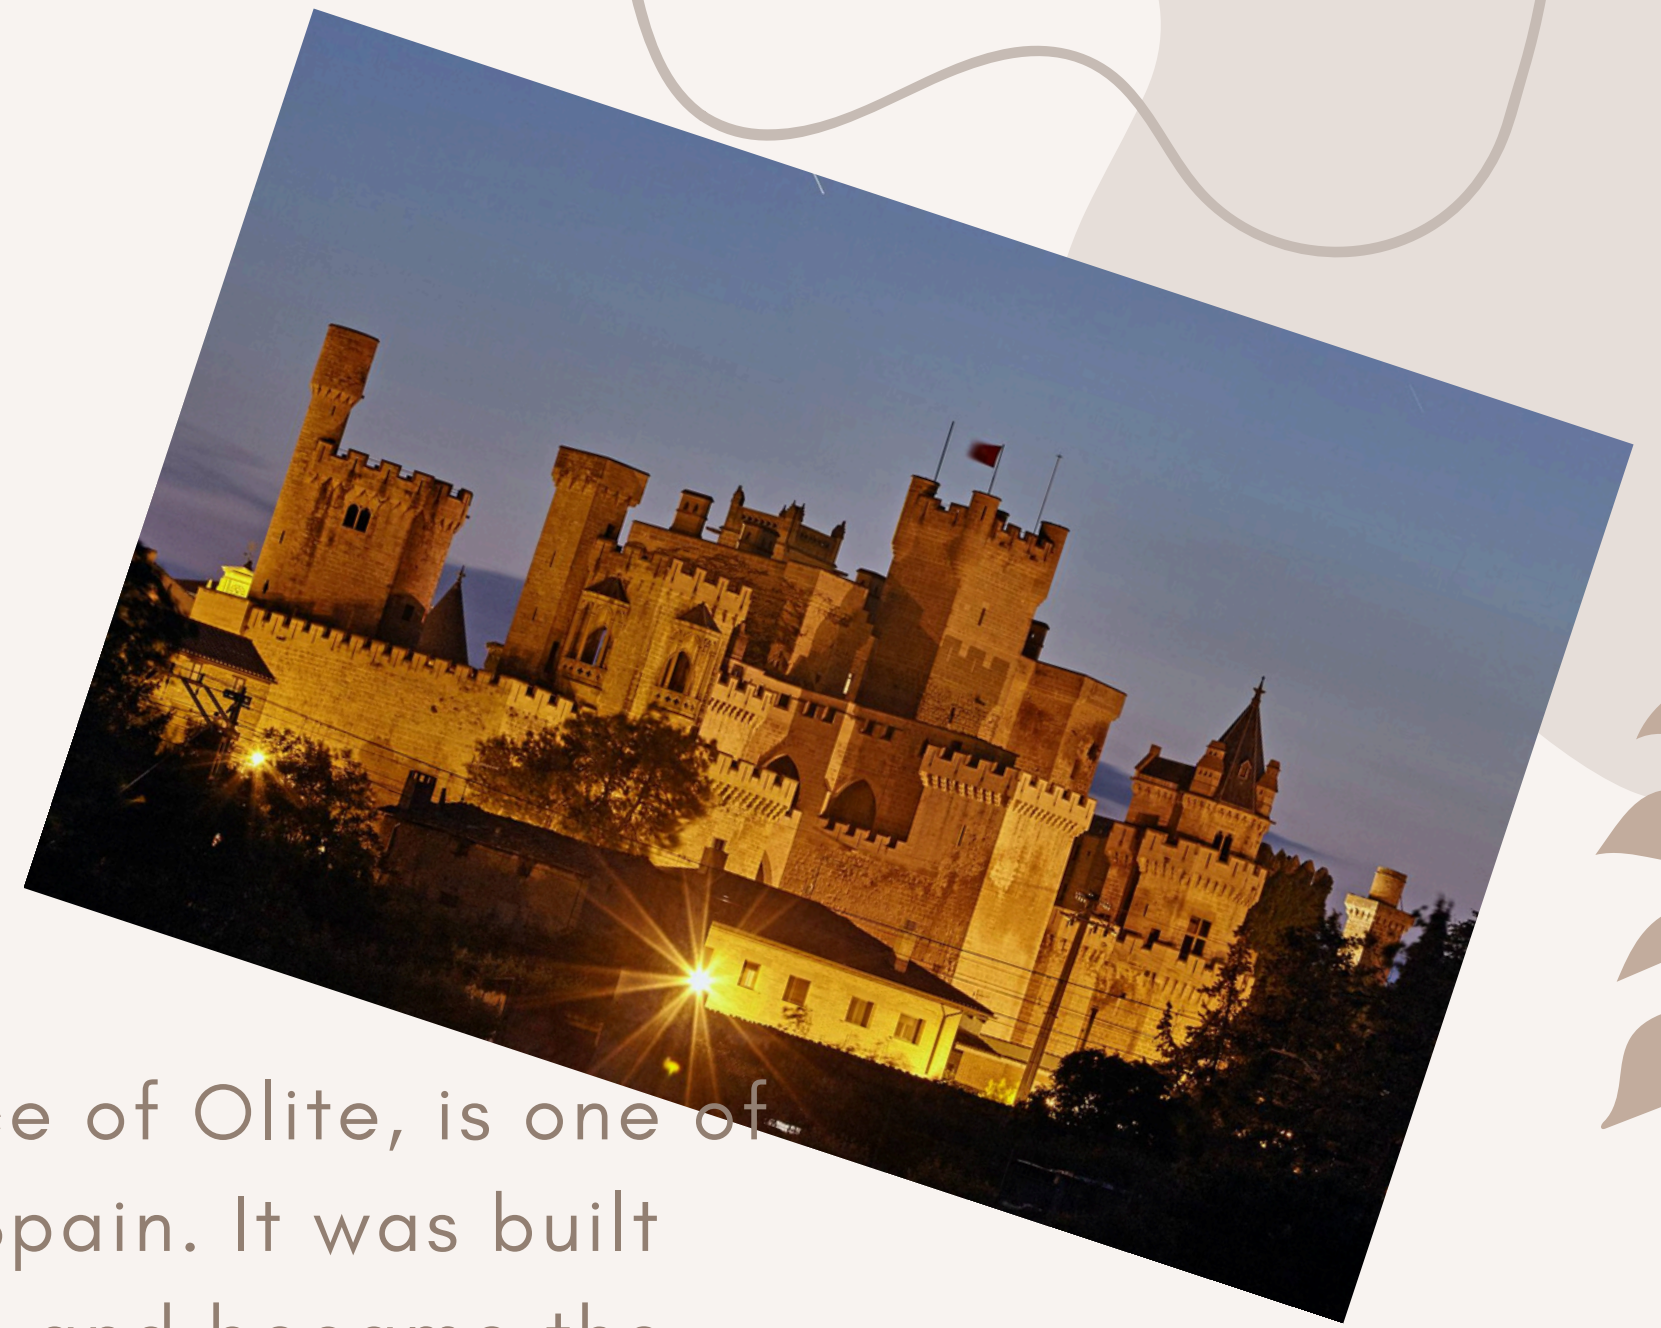

PLACES TO VISIT IN NAVARRA

OLITE CASTLE

Olite Castle, also known as the Royal Palace of Olite, is one of the most important medieval castles in Spain. It was built mainly during the 14th and 15th centuries and became the residence of the kings of Navarre. King Charles III of Navarre expanded the palace and turned it into a luxurious royal court. Although part of the castle was damaged in the 19th century, it was later restored. Today, it is one of the most visited historical monuments in Navarre.

IRATI FOREST

The Irati Forest is one of the largest and best-preserved forests in Europe. It is located in Navarre, in northern Spain. The forest is famous for its beautiful beech and fir trees, as well as its rich wildlife. For centuries, local people have used its natural resources, but it has remained largely untouched. Today, it is a popular destination for hiking and nature tourism.

BARDENAS REALES

The Bardenas Reales is a large natural park located in Navarre, northern Spain. It is known for its unique desert-like landscape, with rocky formations, canyons, and wide open plains. Over thousands of years, wind and water have shaped this striking scenery. Today, it is a protected natural area and a popular place for hiking, cycling, and sightseeing. It was also declared a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve in 2000.

UJUÉ

Ujué is a historic village located in Navarre, northern Spain. It is famous for its medieval streets and its impressive church-fortress, the Sanctuary of Santa María de Ujué. According to local tradition, the village was founded after a shepherd saw a dove leading him to an image of the Virgin Mary. Today, Ujué is one of the most beautiful villages in Navarre and an important destination for cultural and religious tourism.

PUENTE LA REINA

Puente la Reina is a historic town in Navarre, northern Spain. It is famous for its medieval stone bridge, the Puente Románico de Puente la Reina, built in the 11th century to help pilgrims cross the Arga River on the Camino de Santiago. The town became an important meeting point for pilgrims traveling to Santiago de Compostela. Today, it is known for its rich history, medieval architecture, and cultural heritage.

GASTRONOMY

POCHAS A LA NAVARRA

Pochas are a variety of fresh white bean typical of Navarre.

They are cooked in a stew, usually with vegetables, chorizo, or even quail. It is a very traditional dish at the end of summer.

LAMB CHILINDRON

A hearty dish made with chopped lamb cooked with tomato, red peppers, and garlic.

It's a very popular recipe in Aragon as well, but especially traditional in Navarre.

VEGETABLE STEW

One of the most representative dishes. It features fresh, seasonal vegetables such as artichokes, asparagus, peas, and broad beans.

Navarre is famous for the quality of its vegetables.

CHISTORRA

A fresh sausage similar to chorizo but thinner and more tender.

It's usually eaten fried, cooked in cider, or in a sandwich. It's very typical at festivals and celebrations.

CUAJADA

A traditional dessert made with naturally curdled sheep's milk.

It is usually served with honey or sugar and is very typical of rural areas of Navarre.

